

July-August 2006

Emerging technologies.....	4
Donald Alexander
Excitement at Camp NeeKauNis.....	6
Beverly Shepard
Hospitality: A Friendly perspective	7
Jennie Wright
Broken open at the Welcome Table	8
Katie Aven
Are we possessed? Legacy or burden?	11
Helen Melbourne and Stephanie Deakin
Poetry: Change	13
Kay Collins-Thompson
Poetry: Fund Appeals	13
Jack Ross
A light in the ward	14
Ed Abbott
A message sent to Susan Bax in July 2002	14
June Etta Chenard
Coincidence? Serendipity? Something Else?	15
Joy Belle Conrad-Rice
Thank you	18
Margaret Slavin
The City of Remembrance	19
Amy Jean Singleton-Polster
CYM national listeners for Young Friends and adults	21
Book reviews	22
Winnifred Tanner, Don Woodside
The stone in your shoe: A report from Western Half-Yearly Meeting ..	23
Kirsten Ebsen
A report from the Faith and Practice Development Committee ..	24
Molly Walsh
Report from the spring meeting of Representative Meeting	25
Ellen Pye
Around the Family	26
Credits, Upcoming Themes, and Deadlines	28

Cover graphic

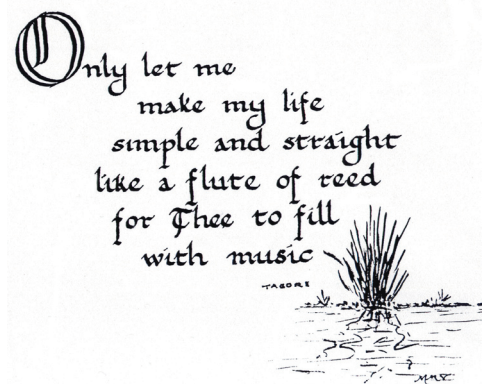

“The Mill, Powell River”
By Alfred Muma, a member of Canadian Yearly Meeting, under the care of Home Mission and Advancement Committee

Insert in this issue

Quaker Book Service:
Book List Number 28
2006 – 2007

A Reminder

Canadian Yearly Meeting 2006 will be held at the Canadian Mennonite University in Winnipeg, from August 12–19.
Murray Thomson, a member of Ottawa Monthly Meeting, and well-known Canadian peace activist, will be the Sunderland P. Gardner lecturer.
A pre-CYM workshop with George Lakey, of the Philadelphia-based Training for Change project, will take place on August 11–12.

CALLIGRAPHY BY MINTA VERNON